

Name:

Teacher:

READING LOG

Book Title:

Name of the Author:

NEED AN IDEA? TRY:

- An award-winning book
- A book about someone different from you
- A book older than you
- A book that makes you cry
- A book that makes you smile
- A graphic novel
- A book by your favorite author
- A book that you wouldn't normally read
- A book with a cool cover
- A book with a boring cover
- A book Mrs. Perinovic loves
- A book your teacher loves
- A biography
- A book in a series

BOOK TALK PLANNING WORKSHEET

Name:

Book Title:

Name of the Author:

Summary of the Story

Start STRONG:

Present something that will grab the listener's attention.

Examples: ask a question, give a description, or strong statement

What is the HOOK?

Introduce the main characters, the setting, and the main problem of the book. Beware of spoilers!

What is the CLIFFHANGER?

What problems are your characters facing? Without giving anything away, ask a question to your listeners that will raise their interest and leave them wanting more.

Your RECOMMENDATION:

Do you recommend this book? Why or why not? Who would you recommend it to? Are there other books that are like this?

BOOK REVIEW WORKSHEET

Name:

Book Title:

Name of the Author:

One-Sentence Summary

If you had to sum up this book in one sentence, what would you say?

A Brief Synopsis of the Book

If you had to write the blurb that goes on the back cover of the book, what would it say? Introduce the setting, the main characters, and their problems. Make it compelling, but don't give too much away!

Your Review

Do you recommend this book? Why or why not?

